Testimonies

"I have been staying in COSI Children's Village for eight years. If not for COSI and the Student Sponsorship Scheme, I would not be able to study in the university. I thank God for people like you who helped me to be where I am today." Nop Vannara, Cambodia (2010)

Nop Vannara was the first orphan who was sent to COSI in 2002. Both his parents died, leaving him and his older brother under the care of an aged grandmother. She could not cope and sent them away to a relative, who subsequently sought help from COSI. At COSI, Nop found Christ, companionship, care, life skills and an education. Today, he is a confident 20-year-old young adult doing his 1st year university study in Electrical Engineering.

beacon of hope

"SSS has opened a window of opportunity to the poor and needy families in Nepal. Now their children can go to schools and learn life-long skills that can equip them for better jobs in their future. SSS also serves as a contact point for these families to come to our church and interact with us. This is where they get to hear the gospel."

A Missionary with Sophia's Home, Nepal

"Having been to Mettakij Hostel a few times, I am impressed by the opportunities accorded to the children there. To inculcate discipline and to mould their characters, the children are given roles and responsibilities like cleaning and serving food.

Those children who have taken up leadership positions in the hostel and church testify to the nurturing care and Christ-like influence of the hostel parents."
